

She is very pretty and she smiles prettily, too.

Write the adverbs.

- |                 |                   |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| slow - _____    | happy - _____     |
| awful - _____   | nice - _____      |
| quiet - _____   | horrible - _____  |
| hard - _____    | neat - _____      |
| patient - _____ | beautiful - _____ |
| Careful - _____ | good - _____      |
| early - _____   | nasty - _____     |

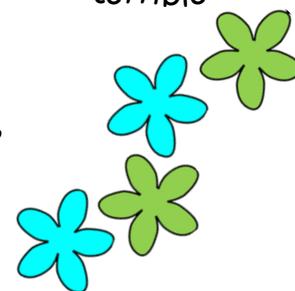

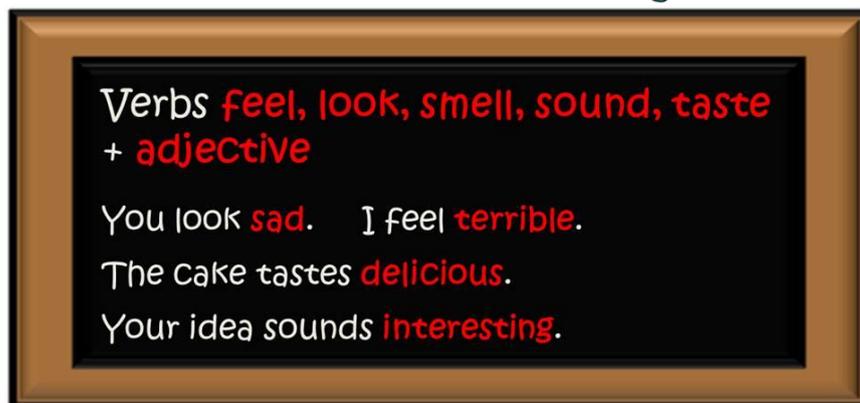

Choose the correct word.

- If you ask Jane nice/nicely, she will lend you her bike.
- Your Spanish is quite fluent/fluently.
- My father doesn't cook very good/well but he makes delicious/deliciously scrambled eggs.
- The baby is usually cheerful/cheerfully in the morning.
- We ran quick/quickly to catch the 10 o'clock train.
- Mr. Palmer is a very careful/carefully driver. He never exceeds the speed limit.
- Luke was playing quiet/quietly while his teenage sister was studying hard/hardly for her geography exam.
- Most of the students did bad/badly in the irregular verbs test.

Choose an adjective in the box, turn it into an adverb and put it in the correct sentence.

- I _____ disagree with your opinion.
- Sheila answered me back _____.
- We can't go out now because it's raining _____.
- Mark is a _____ great painter.
- You mustn't speak _____ in a church.
- My father tends to read _____.
- I can't read your handwriting. You should write more _____.
- You ate the sandwiches _____ . You must have been starving.
- I'm _____ tired. I've been working for ten hours.
- The company achieved last year's objectives _____.
- Nick whispered _____ in my ear, "I love you".
- The professor requested _____ to switch off mobile phones.

- angry
- clear
- fast
- greedy
- heavy
- kind
- loud
- real
- soft
- strong
- successful
- terrible

She is very pretty and she smiles prettily, too.

Write the adverbs.

- |                 |                   |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| slow - _____    | happy - _____     |
| awful - _____   | nice - _____      |
| quiet - _____   | horrible - _____  |
| hard - _____    | neat - _____      |
| patient - _____ | beautiful - _____ |
| Careful - _____ | good - _____      |
| early - _____   | nasty - _____     |

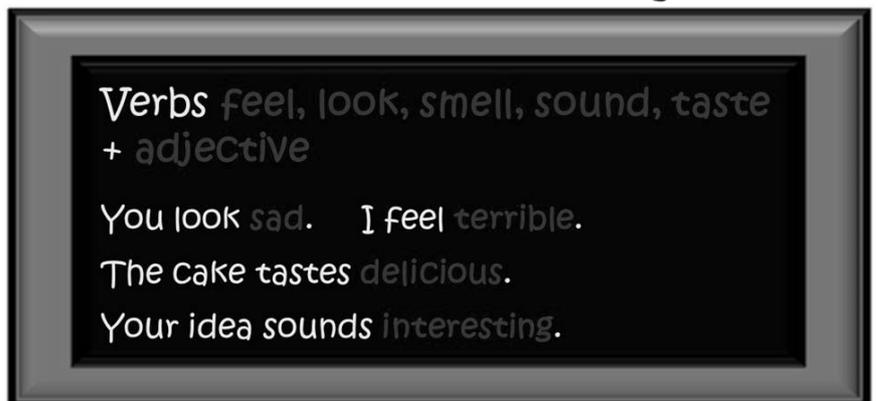

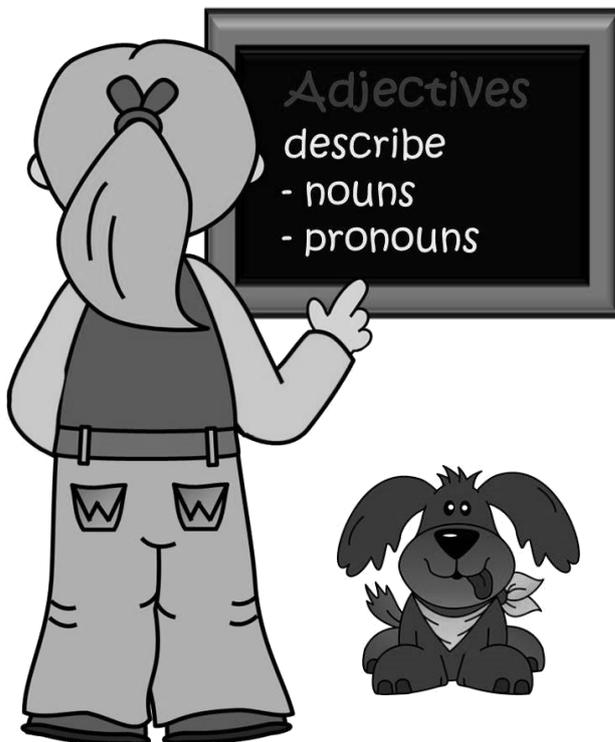

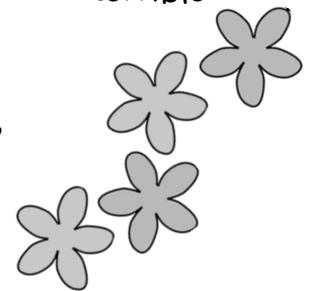

Choose the correct word.

- If you ask Jane nice/nicely, she will lend you her bike.
- Your Spanish is quite fluent/fluently.
- My father doesn't cook very good/well but he makes delicious/deliciously scrambled eggs.
- The baby is usually cheerful/cheerfully in the morning.
- We ran quick/quickly to catch the 10 o'clock train.
- Mr. Palmer is a very careful/carefully driver. He never exceeds the speed limit.
- Luke was playing quiet/quietly while his teenage sister was studying hard/hardly for her geography exam.
- Most of the students did bad/badly in the irregular verbs test.

Choose an adjective in the box, turn it into an adverb and put it in the correct sentence.

- I _____ disagree with your opinion.
- Sheila answered me back _____.
- We can't go out now because it's raining _____.
- Mark is a _____ great painter.
- You mustn't speak _____ in a church.
- My father tends to read _____.
- I can't read your handwriting. You should write more _____.
- You ate the sandwiches _____ . You must have been starving.
- I'm _____ tired. I've been working for ten hours.
- The company achieved last year's objectives _____.
- Nick whispered _____ in my ear, "I love you".
- The professor requested _____ to switch off mobile phones.

- angry
- clear
- fast
- greedy
- heavy
- kind
- loud
- real
- soft
- strong
- successful
- terrible

She is very pretty and she smiles prettily, too.

Write the adverbs.

- |                            |                                |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| slow - slowly       | happy - happily         |
| awful - awfully     | nice - nicely           |
| quiet - quietly     | horrible - horribly     |
| hard - hard         | neat - neatly           |
| patient - patiently | beautiful - beautifully |
| careful - carefully | good - well             |
| early - early       | nasty - nastily         |

Choose the correct word.

- If you ask Jane nice/nicely, she will lend you her bike.
- Your Spanish is quite fluent/fluently.
- My father doesn't cook very good/well but he makes delicious/deliciously scrambled eggs.
- The baby is usually cheerful/cheerfully in the morning.
- We ran quick/quickly to catch the 10 o'clock train.
- Mr. Palmer is a very careful/carefully driver. He never exceeds the speed limit.
- Luke was playing quiet/quietly while his teenage sister was studying hard/hardly for her geography exam.
- Most of the students did bad/badly in the irregular verbs test.

Choose an adjective in the box, turn it into an adverb and put it in the correct sentence.

- I strongly disagree with your opinion.
- Sheila answered me back angrily.
- We can't go out now because it's raining heavily.
- Mark is a really great painter.
- You mustn't speak loudly in a church.
- My father tends to read fast.
- I can't read your handwriting. You should write more clearly.
- You ate the sandwiches greedily. You must have been starving.
- I'm terribly tired. I've been working for ten hours.
- The company achieved last year's objectives successfully.
- Nick whispered softly in my ear, "I love you".
- The professor requested kindly to switch off mobile phones.

- angry
- clear
- fast
- greedy
- heavy
- kind
- loud
- real
- soft
- strong
- successful
- terrible

